Patrick,

Thank you for providing these documents. It is much appreciated. However, would you please identify the Bates Nos. for documents 2 and 152 on Fenn's Appendix B. Without the Bates numbers, we are unable to locate them in the voluminous discovery documents and the versions you provided do not have a Bates Number listed on them.

Also, in reviewing Pam Schneider's report we are unable to locate, and no Bates Numbers are identified in her report, documents 16, 19, 27, and 186. If you would please identify the bates numbers or produce the same documents reviewed by your expert.

Thank you,

Courtney:

Attached, please find installment 2 of 2 of the highlighted documents in Appendix B. Please note that with regard to no. 145, "Capital IQ" is an online database which provides financial data that links to certain of our expert's models via formulas. Capital IQ is more of a source than a specific file. By way of example, your Stout report references Capital IQ as a source on many of their exhibits but not in their list of information considered.
